GENRE: Pop-rock

MEMBERS (FROM LEFT TO RIGHT):

Ricky Fitness (drums)

Crash McLarson (bass)

The MC Bat Commander (vocals)

Jimmy the Robot (keyboards)

Eagle "Bones" Falconhawk (guitar)

MANIA: How did you form the Aquabats?

MC: "One day after a toxic chemical spill and a heavy rain, we were all surfing our favourite river mouth when we all started glowing. We realised that "this must mean something" so we sold our mansions, bought musical instruments, made superhero costumes and we've been the Aquabats ever since!"

MANIA: Do you have any good luck rituals before you jump on stage?

MC: "We all get in a circle and give a cheer that's different every show. Sometimes we say something like 'GO BANANAS!' or 'LET'S GET SWEATY!' or even something like 'BREAD AND CLAMS GO GREAT WITH HAMS!'"

MANIA: Any word on a new Aquabats album?

MC: "We've been writing some new songs but they keep sounding like old ones. We're gonna have to go surfing at the radioactive river again..."

MANIA: Thoughts on superheroes wearing their undies over their pants?

MC: "If you wore "UNDER" pants on the outside then they wouldn't be "under" pants any more would they? Changing our underpants twice a day is a priority in the Aquabats. Fighting monsters and playing rock n' roll is a sweaty business."

TOTALLY WILD ANIMAL AWARDS!

TO CELEBRATE 25 YEARS OF TOTALLY WILD, WE ASKED RANGER STACEY TO DISH OUT SOME AWSM ANIMAL AWARDS!

MANIA: Funniest animal?

STACEY: "Orang-utans. They are so loose and animated and don't really care what anyone else thinks, and they're gorgeous!"

MANIA: Stinkiest animal?

STACEY: "I once did a live stage show and just as I went to handle a saltwater crocodile I discovered it had done a huge poop. The smell took my breath away."

MANIA: Creepiest animal?

STACEY: "I find grasshoppers quite creepy. It's their beady little eyes and the fact that they can spontaneously jump in any direction and land on you with those barbed legs that hook on."

MANIA: Smallest animal?

STACEY: "The little micro-bats that live in forests and caves. Not many people get to see them but they're fascinating and unique."

MANIA: Largest animal?

STACEY: "You can't beat the mighty elephant on land and humpback whales in our oceans."

MANIA: Weirdest animal?

STACEY: "The platypus is weird but in a really good way. It's one of two monotremes or egg-laying mammals that live in Australia. It has a duck-like bill, furry body and a tail like a beaver."

MANIA: Fluffiest animal?

STACEY: "Koala. Their fur is dense and very soft, with a distinctive built-in eucalyptus fragrance."

MANIA: Most dangerous animal?

STACEY: "That's a tie between saltwater crocs, venomous snakes, the stonefish and box jellyfish."

MANIA: Biggest animal blooper on set?

STACEY: "There's been plenty and they mainly have to do with poop. Animals don't care – when they've gotta go, they go! Birds, mammals, reptiles, we've seen it all."

MANIA: Grossiest animal moment award?

STACEY: "I visited a school to deliver a wildlife talk complete with animals. I left the snake (non-venomous) until last and when I took it out of the bag it bit me on the hand. But even more gross was that at the same time, a half digested mouse shot out its other end."

MANIA: One animal you wish you could keep as a pet?

STACEY: "A wombat would be pretty cool."

MANIA: An animal you haven't seen that you want to see?

STACEY: "Whale sharks."

Double Dose of Metroid Incoming!

Metroid comes to 3DS for the first time on September 15 in Metroid: Samus Returns, a remake of the old Game Boy classic Metroid 2: Return of Samus! This looks AWSM, but perhaps even more exciting is the news that Metroid Prime 4 is coming to Switch! Metroid Prime is amazing and we can't wait for the fourth game!

The Xbox One Will Soon Play Xbox Games!

The Xbox One X was announced at E3, offering an upgraded version of the Xbox One, which is aimed to bring the best console experience possible! That's cool, but we've more excited by the news that the Xbox One will get backwards compatibility with the original Xbox! The AWSM Crimson Skies will be the first playable Xbox game!

The SNES Classic Has Never-Before-Seen Game!

Nintendo has announced the SNES Classic, releasing on September 30 with 21 classic games! There's some amazing stuff on there, including Zelda: A Link to the Past and Super Metroid, but the real highlight is Star Fox 2, a game that has never actually been released before! You'll need to finish Star Fox 1 to play it though!

Platform: PS4
Style: Action
Publisher: Sony
Out: 2018

Marvel's Spider-Man

Spidey is coming to PS4, and he's looking better than we've ever seen him! We've seen a playthrough of an early mission that showed off heaps of different gameplay styles. Spider-Man can be sneaky and use stealth to take out enemies, or he can face them directly in combat, dodging and weaving and flinging webs everywhere! You can swing through an amazing recreation of New York, and if your webs can attach somewhere you can swing with ease! Spidey's looking super versatile and strong in this!

Platform: Switch
Style: Platformer
Publisher: Nintendo
Out: October 27, 2017

Super Mario Odyssey

We've had a better look at the new Super Mario game for Switch now, and it looks EPIC! Mario's hat, Cappy, has come to life, and he can now be used to control other characters! Fling Cappy at an enemy or a friend and you can play as them, using their unique abilities! The levels are HUGE and absolutely loaded with secrets and collectables, and it looks amazing – the best-looking game on the Switch so far! It'll be compatible with five new amiibo as well!

Platform: Switch
Style: Fighting
Publisher: Nintendo
Price: $79.95

ARMS

Gameplay: Nintendo's new take on the fighting game is full-on, but also way easier to learn than most fighters! You fight with springy-armed warriors, who can launch attacks at each other from metres away, and each of them have their own unique abilities and talents. If you're playing with motion controls you hold a Joy Con in each hand and launch actual punches, twisting your arms to curve them or bringing them together to block! It takes a little getting used to, but after a while you'll be jumping and throwing punches like a champ! You can also use the Pro Controller, though, which is still really fun. There are heaps of different modes and ways to fight – there are even volleyball and basketball modes, so it's not always just about beating up your opponents! ARMS is at its best in multiplayer, so if you have any Switch-owning mates make sure one of you brings extra Joy Cons for a gaming session!

Graphics: We love the look of ARMS and its cool, springy fighters! The game is just bursting with colours and cool character designs – we especially like gooey glob Helix and dragon-armed Min Min! The different arenas all feel unique, and even the menus are super stylish!

HOT!

A very interesting and unique fighter!

NOT!

The motion controls are hard to get used to!

Dirt 4

Gameplay: The Dirt series is back, and it's a bit easier to get into than last year's super-hardcore Dirt Rally was! The big change this time is the new 'Your Stage' feature, which creates infinite tracks for you to race on! This means you won't have to do the same tracks over and over, as the game makes something new for you to race on every time! This is a super cool feature, and one we hope will be in heaps of future rally titles! The tutorials in this one are super cool too, and we found that the game did a really good job of teaching us all the best rally techniques so we could slide around corners and fly over jumps easily! There are two different levels of simulation available – full-on sim and 'gamer' mode – so Dirt 4 has something for every kind of racer!

Graphics: Wow, Dirt 4 is stunning! We love watching mud splash up onto our car, and the backgrounds make us want to drive off and live inside this game! This feels like a real rally experience, right down to pace notes and engine noises – switch to first person and it's like you're really there!

Super fun rally action!

NOT!

Might not excite non-racing fans!

Portal Knights

Gameplay: If you wanted a bit more of a story and clearer objectives out of a Minecraft-style game, Portal Knights might be the game for you! You pick from one of three classes at the beginning, and then you and up to three mates can set out on a quest to do a lot of crafting and restore power to a series of portals, battling heaps of baddies along the way. You can level up and develop your skills in this game, which is neat, and you'll also need to learn heaps of crafting recipes and complete objectives to restore Portal Knights' world to its former glory! There's heaps to uncover as you explore each of the game's areas, and getting stronger and better at what you're doing feels really good! The crafting is a bit more limited than in Minecraft, though, and the menus can be a pain to use!

Graphics: Portal Knights has a clean, simple look to it. It doesn't look as good as a lot of PS4/Xbox One games, but there are some very cool enemy designs, and we loved being able to build something and then admire our creation! Each area is randomly generated, so you'll never see the same island twice!

HOT!

A crafting game that's easy to get into!

NOT!

Not as many crafting options as Minecraft.

Adventure Time, come on, grab your friends! The Adventure Time Mashup Pack lets you explore the land of Ooo in Minecraft, zooming through the Candy, Fire and Ice Kingdoms, Jake and Finn's treehouse, and heaps of other locations from the show! There are skins for Jake, Finn, Marceline, and other characters included as well, and even the background music is changed to Adventure Time music! You can play in any mode, so you can build onto Ooo or face off against Creepers in Jake's world!

AARDMAN ANIMATIONS CO-FOUNDER, PETER LORD, AND ACMI PRODUCER, ARIEH OFFMAN, TEACH US HOW TO CREATE A STOP-MOTION ANIMATION WITH MORPH!

1. CREATE A STORY

First you need a story! Start small; Morph's first adventures were very short. A good way to start is to think of something you'd like to happen [eg. Morph's vacuum cleaner goes out of control] or a general theme [eg. football] and then build a story around that. Lay out your story with storyboards!

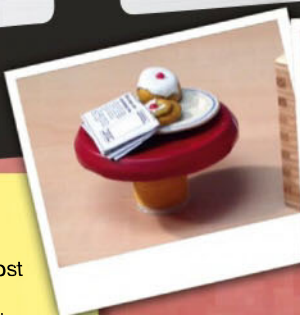

2. MAKE YOUR CHARACTER

You can animate pretty much anything! The star of your animation could be a toy, a piece of fruit or you could even create your character out of clay (like Morph!).

3. CREATE A SET

Keep your set simple. Morph lives on an artist's desk so most of the props in his world are very easy to find like paint pots, pencils, mugs and cotton reels. You can use everyday items to make furniture and props. The table is an old jar lid on top of a cotton reel, and the sofa is made out of dish sponges glued on top of a tin pencil case.

4. FILM IT

Stop motion involves taking a photo, moving your character a little then capturing another photo. You repeat this until you have your animation. Make sure you only move the character and set pieces slightly each time. There are a lot of stop-motion software and lots of free packages including apps. You can use a camera or a phone! Use a tripod or stand to stop the camera from shaking.

5. EDIT AND FINISH

Now you need to combine all your photos! There are plenty of neat editing programs around that will let you polish your movie with titles, credits, effects, and music!

SKB-MANIA

WE'VE COLLECTED SOME WIKKID HARD MODE TRICKS AND WEIRD SKATING FACTS!

POGO

This trick involves flipping your board up so only the tail is touching the ground and then jumping around on it like a pogo-stick! It's a great trick if you really want to break your board!

BOMB DROP

This is when you jump off the top of a ramp while holding your board in your hand and then getting it under your feet before you hit the ground!

WATCH

1080

Spinning around once while in the air is hard, but try spinning around three times in a row (that's 1080 degrees!) and landing it!

SO DIZZY!

SICK MOVES.

COFFIN

You go from standing on your board, to laying flat on your back. This all has to happen while the skateboard is still moving! You also have to stand back up...

DARK SLIDE

It's like a grind, but you flip your board over so your feet are now on the underside of your board and the grip tape is doing the grinding!

GAZELLE FLIP

This is considered one of the hardest skate tricks. While you spin around 360 degrees in the air your board is flipping around 540 degree. So not only do you need to keep your balance mid-air, but you also need to perfectly land on a spinning board! Easy, right?

THRASH FACTS.

Skateboarding was inspired by surfers in California! It used to be known as “sidewalk surfing”!

The wrist is the body part most prone to injury when skating!

The “Ollie” was created by Alan “Ollie” Gelfand. It’s believed to be the first ever skate trick!

It was banned in Norway from 1978 to 1989! It was illegal to even own a board! Norwegian skaters would secretly build ramps in forests!

Early skateboard wheels were made of clay or metal!

Skateboarding is now an Olympic sport! Catch it at the 2020 Tokyo Olympics!

SK8ER SLANG.

GROMMET: Young skater

GOOFY-FOOT: Someone who skates with their right foot at the front.

FAKIE: When your leading foot is at the front of your board to start a trick.

CESS SLIDE: When you slide sideways on all four wheels.

BURLY: A big trick where missing the landing will really hurt!

WOAH-YO!

John Meisenheimer has the largest yo-yo collection, with over 6,000 different yo-yos! He has a yo-yo made of brass that's from the 1790s, and a yo-yo that's almost 2m tall and weighs around 372kg! We wonder what yo-yo tricks he knows!

Matt Stanton's side-splitters!

Laugh it up with Funny Kid For President author Matt Stanton!

MANIA: Funniest joke you know?

MATT: "Mitch Hedberg is one of my favourite comedians. He has a joke that goes: 'Rice is great when you're really hungry ... and you want to eat 2000 of something.' I think about this joke every time I eat rice and now you will too."

MANIA: Funniest movie?

MATT: "Dumb and Dumber is the funniest movie of all time. If you disagree, well ... you're wrong!"

MANIA: Funniest food?

MATT: "A cracker. Duh."

MANIA: Funniest embarrassing moment?

MATT: "I once made a rap music video in which I may or may not have run around in a singlet and pulled some not-that-sick dance moves. This isn't my most embarrassing moment yet, but it certainly will be if anyone ever finds it!"

MANIA: Funniest thing you've heard today?

MATT: "My son told me to buy him a boat for a his birthday. He's almost two. I told him to get a job and buy his own boat, the little slacker."

MANIA: Funniest thing you've seen an animal do?

MATT: "Elephants sitting on stuff! Seriously, YouTube it right now!"

MANIA: Funniest part in Funny Kid?

MATT: "There's a projectile vomit scene in the school library. The librarian cops it in the eye. I finished writing that chapter and said to myself, 'Matt, you have the best job in the whole universe.'"

MANIA: Funniest thing that happened writing this book?

MATT: "I got a writing injury! Seriously! I was trying to climb into a cave near the beach to write because, well sometimes I think I'm Batman, and I stacked it on a rock and cut my hand open. I actually bled my real blood so that you could have a funny book. So you'd better feel guilty and go and buy it right now!"

MANIA: Funniest ice cream flavour?

MATT: "Pea. As in the vegetable, not the ... oh, you're disgusting."

MANIA: Funniest animal in general?

MATT: "A slug. It's like a homeless snail."

MANIA: Funny spoiler for the next book?

MATT: "There's a funny clown called Tumbles who probably kidnapped Max's grandpa! Don't tell anyone or I will hunt you down and fill your pillowcase with lasagna."
